Living History Program

presented by

DAVID D. FINNEY

at the TURNER-DODGE HOUSE, 100 E. North Street, Lansing

7:30 P.M. Wednesday, September 19, 1984

PROGRAM:

Refreshments, served. (Board meeting after)

Mr. David Finney, is a Georgian and a descendant of thirteen Confederate soldiers. For our program, he will provide a first person, living history interpretive program that will focus a 1st. Lieutenant, in Company F, of the 7th Michigan Infantry from Farmington Hills. The Lieutenant was a school teacher as war developed, who as a patriot joins the army to fight for the Union. He will tell the story of his soldiering to Virginia where he participated in major battles and campaigns in the army of the Potomac. His talk will include descriptions of many battles and anecdotes concerning well-know personalities, and soldier's life in the camp. His talk will conclude at Appomattox Court House where the forces of Lee and Grant met and the country was united.

This program was given by Mr. Finney, in authentic officer uniform, during his employment with the United States National Parks Service at Fredericksburg-Spotsylvania and Petersburg National Battlefield Parks.
