

HISTORICAL SOCIETY OF GREATER LANSING

Board Meeting: Saturday, February 8, 1986
9:00 am

Attending: Diana Reedy, Mary McNeely, Marc Bennetts, James Lyons, Sue Cantlon
Absent: John Curry, Joseph Druse, Doris La Fond, Geneva Wiskemann, Phil Siebert
David Caterino, Ronald Clark, Eric Satterlee (Ex-officio)

Minutes:

1. The meeting was held at the Clock Restaurant in north Lansing.
2. The group finalized projects for the coming year, with the exception of the Lansing State Journal "Photo Corner" that will be implemented by Diana Reedy when a majority of the board members have approved this project. Sue will solicit telephone approvals from absent board members.
3. The following projects were approved, based on their feasibility for implementation and their potential for broader "name recognition of the Society."
 - a. Michigan School for the Blind Historical Marker Dedication - Sue Cantlon
 - b. Early Lansing Photographs/Artists, co-sponsorship with Two Doors Down Gallery, Dave Thomas, Marc Bennetts
 - c. REOlds Museum Sesquicentennial Project- Research assistance, Diana Reedy, James Lyons, Marc Bennetts
 - d. Heritage Festival "Up town Festival" to be co-sponsored with the Lansing Parks and Recreation Department at Turner-Dodge
-Contact Sue Cantlon
 - e. Photo Corner - Diana Reedy, Mary McNeely
 - f. Lansing Public Library- Purchase new file cabinet (if needed for the Society for storage of archival materials for the Society).- Mary McNeely
4. Members also discussed the possibility of purchasing a Polk Directory at the Book Fair, March 23rd, 2500 S. Washington
5. Diana Reedy would meet with Jane McClary to locate any past brochures that were used to promote the purpose and membership of the Society. The members agreed that there was a need for a brochure and also to network with other Historical groups to better inform the public and memberships on direction and needs of these organizations.
6. It was noted that a regular Newsletter of the Society should not only promote upcoming membership programs, but status reports of projects, and the upcoming meeting dates of other historical groups. The initial list included:

February 22 Sons of the American Revolution, Sons of the Union Veterans of Civil War
6:30 pm meeting, 7:30 Dinner ($12.50 by reservation)
