The social given on Wednesday evening for the benefit of the colored church was well attended. Several members of the legislature were present, who, comprehending the situation, interested themselves in raising a contribution of $15.50 ($10.50 for the church and $5 for the clergyman), besides bestowing a liberal patronage at the refreshment tables. Lieut. Gov. Crosby presented the contribution to the trustees in a pleasant speech. Representative Robertson also made appropriate remarks, while Representative Warring more than eclipsed himself as a vender of confectionery. After paying all expenses the church will realize $29.75. A strawberry festival is to be given next Wednesday evening at the same place.
