AT MEAD'S HALL

the A. M. E. church association held a dinner from 11 A. M. to 11 P. M. The jugs which had been placed at different business places for collections were broken in the evening. The total receipts from jugs and tables were $167.13; expenses, $38.31; net receipts, $128.82. Received from jugs at business places in city, $47.27; one at North Lansing by Mrs. G. W. Henderson received $23.03—a very material assistance to a struggling society and aid worthily bestowed.

THE BOAT-CLUB DANCE.
